

Press release of 18th April 2018

Last freehold apartment of promotional project «eden7» transferred

Today Intershop has transferred the last freehold unit of 17 exceptional city apartments and three commercial spaces in Zurich-Wiedikon to its new owners, after a construction period of approximately 18 months.

With «eden7», the last of four freehold apartment projects, Intershop is completing the repositioning of the former commercial site close to Giesshübel station. After a developing period of 20 years an attractive and popular quarter which combines living, lifestyle and work in a modern urban way has been created.
