

Press release of 30th March 2022

Building permission received for the «AuPark» development site

Intershop has today received the building permission including detailed conditions. These will be examined in detail. This building permission can be appealed against within 30 days at the appropriate court.

«AuPark» is a development project of the Intershop Group, on which around 230 new flats together with complementary neighbourhood services are to be built. In addition, the canton of Zurich will build a secondary school for the left bank of Lake Zurich. A spacious public park with a playground is planned in the middle of the development as a connecting element and attractive meeting zone for the people of Au.
